

PRAYZVIBES

Street-born indie folk.
Songs with room to breathe.

Independent songwriter, producer and live artist from Franconian Switzerland in Bavaria.

Voice, black acoustic guitar and foot percussion.
English · French · German.
Independent and self-managed.

PRAYZVIBES began in a basement with PRAYZ and a guitar. The work later grew into a studio beneath the rafters, then moved into streets, small rooms and stages.

Self-taught, PRAYZ writes, performs and produces independently. Nature, travel and encounters shape songs about perspective, memory, courage and release. The name brings together praise and vibes: gratitude in the voice and movement in the music.

TRANSCIENCE

Out since 7 August 2026. Four songs: Mountain Day, High Week, Big Jump and Transcendance. Mountain Day is the focus track. Available digitally, on CD and vinyl.

Listen to Transience / CD & vinyl

In the room.

An intimate solo performance built around voice, acoustic guitar and foot percussion. Sets combine original songs and selected covers, usually lasting 1-2 hours; shorter formats are available by arrangement.

Suitable for intimate venues, festivals, private events and open-air settings. Technical requirements and final routing are agreed with the organiser; the provisional solo stage plot is available separately.

Watch the Salzburg street clip / Current dates & live profile / Stage plot \(PDF\)

Published words, in context.

“At its core, TRANSCIENCE argues that fleeting experiences do not have to be permanent to be consequential.”

AVOLA · EP review · 9 August 2026

Curator feature · KIMU · 31 July 2026

Single review · Edgar Allan Poets · June 2026

French-language review · Révolutions de Rythme · August 2026

Artist interview · Illustrate Magazine · 20 June 2026

Print feature · 1111CR3W Magazine · Issue XII

Portuguese-language review · Indieoclock · 4 Aug 2026

TJPL News Magazine · Issue 45

PRAYZVIBES appears alongside other artists in the September issue. This is paid partner participation, disclosed by TJPL, and is presented separately from the articles above.

Open the issue

Images with a clear purpose.

CORNFIELD PORTRAIT

UNDER THE TREE

Two artist-photo references: PRAYZ with his black acoustic guitar in a cornfield and beneath a tree. The web previews are 941 × 1672 pixels; ask Press for the required print or digital format.

Before publication, please confirm the photographer credit and permitted use with Press. Include the selected image, publication, deadline and required dimensions. Transience and Mountain Day cover artwork are listed separately in the online EPK.

View the photo and artwork selection

PRESS press@prayzvibes.com

BOOKING booking@prayzvibes.com

Website / YouTube / Instagram / Bandcamp